The officers in large number from all the corners of the Zone i.e. right from Lalitpur and Jhansi in Bundelkhand to Deoria and Gorakhpur in Eastern UP attended the functions on both the days. Really I salute the militancy and dedication of the members for making this programme eventful & fruitful.

He elaborated that meaning of Awadh is 'which cannot be assassinated', Our great organization was established on 16th Feb'1964 in Kanpur under Lucknow Zone and got registered here. The Ancient name of Lucknow was Lakshmanpur and it was made by Lakshman who was the younger brother of Lord Ram. Lucknow remained the capital of Awadh province during the regime of Muslim rulers and heritage buildings of Bhul-bhulaiya, Rumi Gate, Imambara are the evidences of that period. Lucknow is also famous for its etiquette.

In his inaugural speech, Mr B K Awasthi, Chief Guest expresses his concern about the pathetic conditions of Bank officers citing the instances of late sitting, meetings and camps on Sundays etc. He also told that the attitude of the present government is also not different from the previous government as far as Wage revision in Banking sector is concerned despite the fact that Bank employees have surpassed the herculean task of accomplishing the targets of dream scheme of Prime Minister i.e. PMJDY. He categorically told that IBA is involved in ill designed campaign about the paying capacity of the Banks towards our wage revision as Chairperson of SBI has never written IBA for not sharing more than 11% load of increased wages. Mr Awasthi told that in the name of Banking Reforms, Banks have been unnecessarily forced to make provisions even on Performing Assets to the tune of Rs. 26,400 Crores. He informed the house that Organization is not only fighting for Wage revision but also for transparent transfer policies, regulated banking hours and improvement in Pensions. Finally he appreciated the approach of the Central Bank Management at Lucknow for their whole hearted support and involvement in the Programme.

Sri P K Gupta, Field General Manager has chosen the occasion as opportunity to convey the message of the Management to field functionaries in a very effective manner. Mr Gupta calls on the officers to put their best in the interest of Bank. He assured the house that for any kind of injustice at any level, association is free to approach. He further assured the house that Management of Lucknow Zone will not insist them to violate any policies of the Bank for the achievement of Business targets and appealed to come forward for recovery in NPA accounts and for achievement of 1 ranking position amongst all Zones in achieving the Business targets.

Sri N K Pareek asked the younger officers to take lead in Union activities to fight for the right cause of their colleagues and appraised them that Association also provide opportunities for good career quoting his own example of becoming Secretary, President of Association and then Officer Director in Bank's Board which is appointed by Government of India.

Sri S C Gupta, President All India central bank officers Federation asked the members to participate whole heartedly in the agitational calls of Association to express their solidarity and appealed the AGMs and CMs present in the meeting to join the membership quoting the example of Ahmedabad Zone where 45 Chief Managers are members of Association.

Sri S B Rode, General Secretary, All India Central Bank Officers Federation presented the statistical data on various parameters of some peer Banks vis-à-vis Central Bank of India and appraised the house that due to insufficient human resources, our Bank is lagging in the performance. He appealed to achieve the target of 100% membership quoting the example of Pune Zone where none of the officers is member of any other Association.
